

School Resource Officer

The School Resource Officer Program is a collaborative effort by law enforcement officers, court personnel, educators, students, parents and the community, in an effort to provide a clean, safe, and secure learning environment for everyone.

Officer Philip Wesley has been the School Resource Officer for the Rockport Schools since completing the NASRO(National Association School Resource Officers) basic training course in March 2000. Officer Wesley is tasked with assisting the schools with safety concerns and criminal matters. His responsibilities include keeping the schools informed of any out of school activities that may negatively impact the peace, safety, and security of the schools, its students and staff, Also assisting with any questions or concerns they may have throughout the year.

Officer Wesley can be contacted at 978-546-1212 Ext#30.